

“We bought a house in San Diego and needed it to be completely remodeled. Since we didn’t live in the area we didn’t know any contractors. We were given Mario Gonzales name by our designer. We could not have been more pleased. Doing a long distance remodel is not easy but Mario and his crew were great to work with. They are trustworthy and are hard workers. Mario is professional and his record keeping/billing is always on track. He is an ethical man who does what he says, listens and brings a finished product that was just what we had envisioned. He has my highest recommendation”.
